Appendix A

Services to be provided by Contractor

Contractor agrees to perform said services all in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Any change in the Scope of Services must be approved in advance by RBOC.

I. Description of Services

In light of recent recommendations made to RBOC by Dr. William Ibbs (Ibbs Consulting) and a SFPUC Independent Review Panel, RBOC has requested that the SFPUC conduct a Cost Estimate at Completion (EAC) and Schedule at Completion (SAC) analysis for a representative sample of projects and that this analysis be reviewed by RBOC’s consultant (Task A) for purposes of evaluating the accuracy, soundness, and quality of the SFPUC’s cost and schedule forecasts and the WSIP’s overall status with regard to cost and schedule.

In addition, RBOC’s consultant (Task B) will review of all forecasted delivery costs remaining to complete the WSIP based on the most current information available at the time of the consultant’s analysis for purposes of verifying that such remaining costs reflect the phasing out of resources as the WSIP program winds down over the next few years.

II. Main Objectives

The main objectives surrounding tasks A and B require the consultant to answer these two fundamental questions:

- Does the current WSIP methodology for forecasting cost and schedule provide realistic, sound, and reliable projections?
- What is the confidence level that the program will be completed within the currently approved WSIP schedule and cost?

Contractor will review the SFPUC’s EAC/SAC analysis and remaining delivery costs and provide RBOC with a report as to the accuracy, soundness, and quality of the SFPUC’s forecasting practices at the project and program levels.

Task A. Examine the Process for Forecasting Cost Estimate at Completion (EAC) and Schedule at Completion (SAC)

Key questions to be addressed in Task A include but are not limited to: 1) Does the EAC/SAC analysis of the representative projects suggest that these projects are on schedule and within the budget? 2) Does the EAC/SAC analysis suggest that the overall WSIP program is on schedule/budget? 3) What issues/actions, if any, should be addressed and/or put in place to improve the project/program method for forecasting completion budgets and schedules?

Contractor shall determine the likelihood that the represented projects and the overall WSIP will be on time and within budget when compared to the SFPUC’s currently forecasted cost and schedule at completion. Four (4) ratings will be required for each of the following:
representative projects – cost, representative projects – schedule, overall WSIP – cost, and overall WSIP – schedule, using the following scale:

1. Highly Likely – the consultant believes there is a 90% or greater likelihood that the projects/program will be completed on time and within budget.
2. Very Likely – same as above except 80-90%
3. Somewhat Likely – same as above except 70-80%
4. Unlikely – same as above except below 70%

Task B. Examine Remaining Delivery Costs*
Key questions to be addressed in Task B include but are not limited to: 1) How reasonable are the SFPUC’s forecasted delivery costs based on the size and complexity of the WSIP? 2) How do the SFPUC’s forecasted delivery costs compare with delivery costs of already completed projects? 3) How do the SFPUC’s delivery costs compare with industry standards or other comparable programs? 4) What recommendations can you make that enable the SFPUC to more accurately forecast delivery costs, help reduce these costs, and phase-out resources no longer necessary as the WSIP program nears completion?

*As defined by the SFPUC, delivery costs – often referred to as soft costs or non-construction related costs – include project and program management, planning, engineering, environmental review and permitting, construction management, engineering support during construction, and other City staffing costs such as real estate services, legal services, public outreach, operations support, etc.

III. Scope of Work by Task

Task A - EAC/SAC Review

Five projects have been selected for the EAC/SAC analysis. These five projects represent different large water infrastructure projects. All are costly - as well as complex - and represent unique challenges.

1. Calaveras Dam Replacement-------------------------$416M
2. New Irvington Tunnel-----------------------------$320M
3. BDPL Reliability Upgrade Tunnel-----------------$307M
4. HTWP Long Term Improvements-------------------$277M
5. Crystal Springs/San Andreas Transmission Upgrade---$165M

Contractor will review the SFPUC’s EAC/SAC analysis for the five projects in sufficient detail to thoroughly understand if project costs and schedule assumptions, inclusions, projections, and contingencies are reasonable, and if the projects can be delivered as indicated in the current WSIP forecast at completion based on the information know at the time of the analysis. (See Item 4 below.)
The scope of services for Task A will include but not be limited to those items listed below:

1. Follow the SFPUC’s forecasting process from beginning to end for each project and assess the thoroughness and accuracy of the EACs/SACs generated as part of the process.
2. Review SFPUC cost estimating and cost forecasting methodology, assumptions, accuracy, and processes used to determine forecast final project cost at completion.
3. Review the SFPUC’s schedule projection and forecasting methodology, assumptions, accuracy, and processes used to determine schedule at completion forecasts.
4. Using the ratings scale described under Main Objectives – Task A, determine the likelihood that the represented projects and overall WSIP program will be completed on time and within budget. The consultant must be able to provide the supporting information used to make the rating determination, which lays out the rationale, data, and method for each of the four (4) rating findings.
5. Spot check key approved change orders (CO’s) to insure they were approved in accordance with SFPUC policies and are essential to the successful completion of the project. (Note: Consultants’ proposals must describe their approach/method used in checking these COs (e.g., % of number of COs, % of dollar value.)
6. Spot check pending and potential CO’s for both cost and time impacts to ensure that projections are realistic, thorough, and that assumptions for cost and schedule at completion are sound and within industry norms. (Note: Consultants’ proposals must describe their approach/method used in checking these COs (e.g., % of number of COs, % of dollar value.)
7. Review project trend projections for both cost and time impacts to ensure that projections are realistic, thorough, and that assumptions for cost and schedule at completion are sound and within industry norms.
8. Confirm that all approved, pending, and potential CO’s and trends are included in the SFPUC’s project cost and time completion forecasts.
9. Review the project risk registers to determine if all reasonable risks are assessed and accounted for. Assess how best to bring greater visibility and clarity to the potential cost and schedule impacts that may result from WSIP’s highest probability risks. Explain your rationale and analysis used to develop your opinion.
10. Review all project contingencies, both construction and non-construction, to determine if there will be sufficient contingencies to cover all costs for the projects at completion. Using the analysis of the 5 projects as a base, provide an opinion and the supporting rationale and data to extrapolate this information and determine the likelihood that the entire WSIP program can be completed within the current contingency funding, including the Program Management Reserve Fund.
11. Interview the prime contractor for each of the five projects to gain the contractors perspective on the current and projected status of the work and current and future cost and schedule challenges to ensure that all reasonable cost and schedule issues are addressed in the SFPUC’s EAC/SAC forecasts. The SFPUC’s project construction managers for each of the projects shall participate in the interviews between RBOC’s consultant and the prime contractor. (Note: if the interviews are held at the construction site, the consultant will be responsible for adhering to all construction site safety protocols established by the contractor and the WSIP Program during visits to the site. The consultant will solely be responsible for safety training of their employees and their employees’ safety on the sites.)

12. Present a comprehensive written report to the RBOC giving the details and analysis leading to the consultant’s findings and recommendations.

13. Provide specific actions that should be taken to provide more accurate EAC/SAC projections if findings indicate the need for revisions to the SFPUC current forecasting process.

Task B – Review of Remaining Delivery Costs

Once a program is in construction, project costs are to a great extent fixed through the awarded construction contracts. However, costs may vary in two areas – construction change orders and delivery costs (often referred to as soft costs). With WSIP construction activities projected to peak in the fall of 2012, the WSIP team will need to start ramping down some activities in early 2013. Task B involves assessing the projected delivery costs for the remainder of the program and verifying that those costs reflect the phasing out of resources as the WSIP program nears completion.

The scope of services for Task B will include but not be limited to the items listed below:

1. Examine the process by which the SFPUC controls and forecasts remaining delivery costs: a) Review all forecasted delivery costs remaining to complete the WSIP, including costs associated with program and project management, planning, engineering, environmental review and permitting, construction management, engineering support during construction, and other City staffing costs (e.g., real estate services, Water Enterprise operations support, legal services, etc.); b) Ensure that the definition of “remaining delivery costs” is fully understood so that comparisons with outside benchmarks or other programs can be assessed, if desirable. The analysis should include a review of all delivery cost forecasts (based on specific resource allocation projections of all key positions) and a review of how consultants and City staff are being transitioned out of the WSIP program.

2. Compare the SFPUC’s forecasted delivery costs of active projects with the actual delivery costs to date for completed projects to allow for a project-level comparison of the delivery costs approved as part of the July 2011 Revised WSIP Program Budget.

3. Present a comprehensive written report to the RBOC giving details and analysis leading to the consultant’s findings and recommendations.

4. Provide specific actions that should be taken to more accurately forecast or control delivery costs if findings indicate the need to do so.

IV. Deliverables

The consultant will provide the SFPUC and RBOC with a complete preliminary draft report. The SFPUC, RBOC and interested stakeholders will provide feedback on the consultant's preliminary draft report for the consultant’s consideration. Comments received on the preliminary draft and any subsequent responses made by the consultant shall be included in a final draft report presented to RBOC at a public meeting. The final draft report will be provided both electronically and in hard copy including all key backup information used to substantiate the consultant’s findings/recommendations. Depending on the outcome of this meeting, RBOC may request the consultant to incorporate certain changes into a final report. See timeline below.

VI. Task Orders

Performance of the service under this Agreement will be executed according to a task order process, and Contractor is required to provide adequate quality control processes and deliverables in conformance with the technical requirements of the task order. RBOC will initially identify tasks and request the contractor to propose a project scope, sub tasks, staffing plan, schedule, deliverables, budget and costs to complete the task in accordance with Appendix B. All costs associated with the development of the scope of work shall be borne by Contractor. A final task order will be negotiated between RBOC and the Contractor. However, as provided in the RFQ, the budget, if applicable, identified for tasks is an estimate, and the City reserves the right to modify the applicable budget allocated to any task as more specific information concerning the task order scope becomes available.

The task order request will be processed for Controller certification of funding, after which a Notice to Proceed will be issued. The Contractor is hereby notified that work cannot commence until the Contractor receives a written Notice to Proceed in accordance with the San Francisco Administrative Code. Any work performed without a Notice to Proceed will be at the Contractor’s own commercial risk. The calculations of costs and methods of compensation for all task orders under this Agreement shall be in accordance with Appendix B.
